

Welcome to St Dunstan's and Southville Churches

Feltham Ecumenical Parish:
Anglican and Methodist Churches in partnership

Sunday
5th June 2022

Pentecost

Today is Pentecost Sunday and it is also the last day of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations. The Queen's life of service, from her dedication to serve our nations and the Commonwealth when she was 21, has been guided and supported by her Christian faith. Which she has spoken of in some of her recent public broadcasts.

However you may feel about the institution of monarchy, the Queen is an example of living out the Christian faith, in good and bad times and in the everyday. Followers of Christ of all ages, including Her Majesty, are empowered in service by the Holy Spirit. Witnessing in our everyday lives to the love and saving grace of God given through Jesus Christ. Whatever roles and situation we may find ourselves in, the Holy Spirit is given through Jesus Christ to guide, strengthen and comfort us as we serve God and one another. .

God save her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II
And each one of us.

Anne Dollery

The funeral of Maurice Park (Duncan's father-in-law) will take place on Monday 6th June in the Ogden Chapel of South West Middlesex Crematorium 12:40pm. You are most welcome to attend.

The funeral of Joyce Bullimore (late of Woodthorpe Methodist Church) will take place on Friday 10th June. South West Middlesex Crematorium 1pm, then a Service of Thanksgiving at 2.30pm, at Woodthorpe Methodist Church, Edinburgh Drive.

We hope you may have been able to enjoy the Jubilee celebrations ( if you have not had to work over the holiday) and may have photos of special meals events and street parties to keep to show future generations! .

Pictures of just two of the Feltham celebrations from the Queen's Coronation in 1953 are below – thank you to Alan Rice and Feltham History Society. Can you find Alan in the Street party photo? This was a time when the few families with TVs hosted their neighbours to watch the Queen's coronation on 9" black and white TV screens. There was still food rationing. A friend who was 11 in 1953 told me that she remembered the food at her 1953 children's street party was meat paste sandwiches and jam sandwiches. A far cry from the ingredients of the Platinum pudding.

48 The Coronation Carnival procession of 6 June 1953 entering Feltham High Street, showing the Carnival Queen's float. The Carnival Queen was Connie Abbott. The procession formed in Burns Avenue and travelled along the High Street to Spring Corner. This was Feltham's first Carnival after the Second World War, and became an annual event.

Feltham Food Bank: donations of food or money continue to be needed please. Thank you to all those who support the Food bank.
