

Welcome to St Dunstan's and Southville Churches

Feltham Ecumenical Parish:
Anglican and Methodist Churches in partnership

Sundays
10th & 17th July 2022

Fourth and fifth
Sundays after Trinity

The Bible story of the Good Samaritan forms part of today's readings and is a parable to demonstrate how we should "love our neighbours as ourselves." When others need our help the most, like the man beaten by robbers on the road, our love for neighbours is truly tested. Jesus instructs us to be like the Good Samaritan, helping others in times of suffering, and not the Priest and Levite who neglected their neighbour. Of course, the reason the Priest and Levite walked by was that they were afraid of touching the man in case he was dead and they would be unclean and could not enter the temple. Jesus use of the Samaritan as an example was also very controversial as his listeners were Jews who would have nothing to do with Samaritans.

Read Bible verses relating to the Good Samaritan lesson below and may this story inspire you to love your neighbour as yourself just as the Good Samaritan did.

1 John 4:7 - "Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God."

Leviticus 19:18 - "You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the Lord."

People wanted

Flowers at St. Dunstan's: there is a sign-up sheet at the back of church for people who would like to fund flowers for a particular Sunday, perhaps in celebration of a loved one. See Shelagh Lagden or Marian Foley.

Church access and toilet in St. Dunstan's church: we are urgently seeking to establish a small group from the congregation to coordinate the fund raising (i.e. by seeking gifts or grants from outside bodies) for the development work on the church. Rachel Stuchbury has offered to be involved. Are there two more people that could join this group? Rachel is currently responsible for the Newsletter and would need to hand that job on to somebody else. Please speak to Anne or Duncan if you can help in any way.

PCC sub-committees: the PCC would like to reinstate these under the headings of Buildings, Nurture & Education, and Worship. You do not have to be a PCC member to join. Please reflect prayerfully on whether you could contribute to one of these groups. Speak to Anne or Duncan if you'd like to know more.

Children Society collection boxes: If anybody would be interested in taking responsibility to begin again to organise the collection boxes for The Children's Society, please contact the Parish Office or speak to Duncan Forsyth to find out what is involved.

Invitation to remember in our prayers this week:

In the news:

As the 12th July approaches with its annual Unionist celebrations in Northern Ireland, we pray that the season may pass peacefully there; for the growth of trust and cooperation between Unionists and Nationalists; and that a workable resolution of arguments over trading arrangements between Northern Ireland and other areas may soon be reached.

From Churches Together

We ask for God's blessing on his church at All Saints, Hanworth and Fr. Sergiy Diduk, praying that all who visit the church premises, worship or activities may glimpse the face of Jesus.

In the parish:

We pray for people who live or work in Burns Avenue, Shakespeare Avenue, Tennyson Close, Ruskin Avenue or Tachbrook Road.

Those who are ill or in particular need:

Brenda Cook, Ricky Sorenti, Amanda Elliott, Josie Coates, Fatemeh Nezami, Diana Gamble, Graham, Barbara Meakin (The Cloisters Nursing Home), Paul (Anne Mills Roberts' nephew), Barbara Tonkins, Jeanette Vale, Rosemary White (Beryl Gamble's sister)

NB Please note that this list will be cleared and started afresh at the end of August, to prompt us all to think about where our prayers are most needed. As before, requests for prayer can be given to Anne Dollery or the Parish Office.

Those who have died recently and those who mourn them:

Paul Geere

Those whom we remember this week:

10th July: Linda Mackenzie, Mandy Sharp, Reg Guest

17th July: Stephen Sharp, Debbie Sharp, Jill Charteris, Bob Young
